Attorneys for Plaintiff and the Class

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

X

YAROSLAV SURIS, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated,

Case No.:

Plaintiff,

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY,

Defendant.

1. Plaintiff, YAROSLAV SURIS (hereinafter "Plaintiff"), on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, by their attorney, the Law Offices of Mitchell S. Segal, P.C., hereby files this Class Action Complaint against the Defendant, COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY (hereinafter "Defendant") and state as follows:
2. This Class Action brings this litigation for Defendant's actions against deaf and hard of hearing individuals residing in New York and within the United States. Defendant has denied the Plaintiff who is deaf and deaf and hard-of-hearing and other deaf and hard of hearing individuals' access to goods and services provided to non-disabled individuals through its Websites www.columbia.edu and www.gocolumbialions.com (hereinafter the "Websites"), and in conjunction with its physical locations, is a violation of Plaintiff's rights under the American with Disabilities Act ("ADA").

3. Defendant provides a wide array of goods and services to the public through its Websites. However, due to barriers that make it difficult for deaf and hard-of-hearing individuals to use the Websites, the Plaintiff, and other deaf and hard of hearing individuals cannot understand the audio portion of videos on the Websites. Defendant excludes the deaf and hard of hearing from the full and equal participation on their Websites, and therefore denial of its products and services offered and in conjunction with its physical locations and is a violation of Plaintiff's rights under the ADA.
4. Plaintiff, lives in Kings County, New York State and is a deaf individual. He brings this civil rights class action against the Defendant for failing to design, construct, and/or own or operate Websites that are fully accessible to and usable by deaf and hard-of- hearing people without the help of others in violation of Title III of the American Disabilities Act ("ADA"); the New York Human Rights Law ("NYHRL"); the New York City Human Rights Law ("NYCHRL") and Article 15 of the N.Y. Executive Law §§ 290, et. seq.
5. Deaf or hard of hearing individuals require closed captioning to understand audio components of video content. Closed captioning displays text on videos, television programming, and DVD movies in addition to online Websites allowing deaf and hard-of-hearing individuals the same and equally accessible experience as non-deaf or hard of hearing individuals to watch videos by reading the captioned text.
6. Without closed captioning deaf and hard-of-hearing people cannot enjoy video content on Websites while the general public can.

7. The Defendant has videos on its Websites without closed captioning, or with limited closed captioning, which are inaccessible to deaf and hard-of-hearing individuals. Without closed captioning, deaf and hard-of-hearing people cannot understand the audio portion of the videos on the Websites.

8. By failing to make the Websites accessible to deaf and hard-of-hearing persons, Defendant is violating equality requirements under both state and federal law.

9. The American Disabilities Act provides for the non-discrimination against people with disabilities. Discrimination includes barriers displayed by websites and other public accommodations that are inaccessible to deaf and hard of hearing individuals. New York State also requires access to goods, services, and facilities by making reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities.

10. The Plaintiff in this matter was on the Defendant's Websites in order to watch basketball games and players interviews and watch related videos on the day of January 21, 2019 and subsequent days. However, due to access barriers, the Plaintiff could not watch the content and Plaintiff and Class members will continue to be unable to watch video content on the Websites unless the Defendant corrects the existing barriers on the Websites.

11. The failure of the Defendant to provide access to millions of deaf and hard of hearing individuals in the United States violates the American with Disabilities Act ("ADA") goal of providing "full and equal enjoyment" of a public accommodation's goods, services, facilities and privileges. Places of public accommodation include but are not limited to “place[s] of exhibition and entertainment”, “place[s] of recreation”. “sales or rental establishment[s]” and “service establishments”. 28 CFR § 36.201(a); 42 U.S.C. § 12181(7). The Defendant’s Websites are a “place of public accommodation” which denies equal access to its video content which is available to hearing individuals and violates the ADA.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 42 U.S.C. § 12181, for Plaintiff’s claims which arise under Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12181, et seq., (“ADA”); and 28 U.S.C. § 1332, because this is a class action, as defined by 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(1)(B), in which a member of the presumed Class is a citizen of a state different than Defendant, and the amount in controversy exceeds the sum or value of $5,000,000, excluding interest and costs. See 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2).

13. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1337 under the New York State Human Rights Law, N.Y. Exec. Law, Article 15 (Executive Law § 290 et seq.) and the New York City Human Rights Law, N.Y.C. Administrative Code § 8-101 et seq. (“NYCHRL”).

14. Venue is proper in the Southern District of New York pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b)-(c) and 1441(a).

15. The Defendant’s actions occurred while the Plaintiff attempted to watch videos on the Defendant’s Websites at his home located in the Eastern District.

16. Defendant is subject to personal jurisdiction in the Southern District. Defendant has been and is continuing to commit the acts or omissions alleged in the Southern District of New York that caused injury and violated the Plaintiffs rights and the rights of other deaf and hard of hearing individuals.

17. This Court is empowered to issue a declaratory judgement under 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202.

PARTIES

18. The Plaintiff is and has been at all times material hereto a resident of Kings County, New York.

19. Plaintiff is legally deaf and is disabled as defined in the American Disability Act (“ADA”) under 42 U.S.C. § 12102(1)-(2), 28 CFR §§ 36.101 et seq., the New York State Human Rights Law and the New York City Human Rights Law.

20. The Plaintiff has been denied equal access of the facilities, goods, and services of the Defendant’s Websites due to their lack of accessibility. The Plaintiff attempted to watch various videos on www.columbia.edu and www.gocolumbialions.com, including but not limited to a video entitled “Season Hype Interview: Joe Manchio Post, Binghamton” and “Listen to Prof. Eric Talley discuss the blend of business and law training that sets his classes apart, along with the advantages Columbia students enjoy by virtue of being in the international business capital of the world” but was unable to do so due to its lack of closed captioning. Plaintiff and Class members cannot watch videos on the Websites and have been prevented from accessing the Websites and are deterred from visiting the Websites.

21. The Defendant, COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY is chartered by the New York State Board of Regents and is organized and existing under the laws of New York State.

22. The Defendant owns, manages, controls and maintains the Websites with the domain name of www.columbia.edu and www.gocolumbialions.com (the "Websites"). Defendant additionally has physical locations in New York.

23. The Defendant barriers to accessibility affect millions of deaf and hard-of-hearing individuals throughout the county by preventing full and equal access and enjoyment of a public accommodation's goods, services, facilities, and privileges.

24. Websites are a place of public accommodation defined as a "place[s] of exhibition and entertainment," "places[s] of recreation," and "service establishments." 28 C.F.R. § 36.201 (a); 42 U.S.C. §12181 (7). Defendants campuses and facilities are also public accommodations.

25. The Plaintiff seeks injunctive and declaratory relief requiring the Defendant to correct the barriers which prevent access for deaf and hard of hearing individuals so that they can enjoy the Defendant's Websites as non-deaf and hard-of-hearing individuals are able to do.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

26. Plaintiff, for himself and on behalf of others similarly situated, seeks class action certification pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 23(a) and 23(b)(2) of all deaf and hard of hearing individuals in the United States who have been denied equal access to goods and services of the Defendant's Websites.

27. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and on behalf of all others similarly situated, seeks to certify a New York State subclass under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 23(a) and 23(b)(2) of all deaf and hard of hearing individuals in the State of New York who have been denied equal access to goods and services of the Defendant's Websites.

28. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and on behalf of all others similarly situated, seeks to certify a New York State subclass under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 23(a) and 23(b)(2) of all deaf and hard of hearing individuals in the City of New York who have been denied equal access to goods and services of the Defendant's Websites.

29. The Class is so numerous, being composed of millions of deaf and hard of hearing individuals, that joinder of all members is impracticable; there are questions of law and/or fact common to the Class and the claims of the Plaintiff are typical of the Class claims.

30. Common questions of law and fact exist amongst the Class including:

- a. Whether the Website is a "public accommodation" under the ADA and New York laws;
- b. Whether there was a violation under the ADA due to the barriers that exist on the Defendant's Website and whether the Plaintiff and the Class were denied full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations; and
- c. Whether there was a violation under New York law due to the barriers that exist on the Defendant's Website and whether the Plaintiff and the Class were denied full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations.

31. The Plaintiff's claims are typical of those of the Class as they both claim that Defendant violated the ADA, and/or the laws of New York by failing to have its Websites accessible.

32. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the Class members as the Plaintiff and the Class are both deaf or hard of hearing individuals having the same claims.

33. Class certification is appropriate under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(2) because Defendant has acted or refused to act on grounds applicable to the Class making declaratory and injunctive relief appropriate.

34. Questions of law or fact common to Class members predominate questions affecting individual Class members and a class action will fairly and efficiently decide this action.

35. Counsel for the Plaintiff is experienced representing both Plaintiffs and Defendants in Class actions. As such the Class will be properly represented.

36. Judicial economy will be served by maintaining this lawsuit as a class action as it will prevent the filing of a voluminous amount of individual lawsuits by people who are deaf or hard of hearing throughout the United States.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

37. Defendant owns, operates, controls and maintains the Websites, which provides important information about the university and its departments including student life including athletics stories on video, in articles and information displays. This content is delivered to millions of people across the United States.

38. The Websites can be viewed by individuals located in New York State in addition to the other states of the United States and can be reached from computers, tablets and cellphones which can access the internet.

39. In order for the deaf and hard of hearing to access video content, Websites must have the ability to turn voice content into readable content. Closed captioning is the process by which this is done. Without the use of closed captioning, a deaf or hard of hearing individuals would have to have someone present while they are watching a video to interpret and explain the audio content for them.

40. Various recommendations and guidelines exist in order to make Websites compliant with the ADA. Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (“WCAG”) are one of those guidelines. WCAG 2.1 Section 1.2.2 states that “Captions are provided for all prerecorded audio content in synchronized media, except when the media is a media alternative for text and is clearly labeled as such”. Section 508, an amendment to the United States Workforce Rehabilitation Act of 1973, requires all electronic and information technology be accessible to individuals with disabilities and requires closed captioning for video content.

41. The Websites’ numerous videos which cannot be accessed by deaf and hard of hearing individuals are in violation of the ADA and New York laws. Videos include a lot of the Websites’ videos in addition to the video the Plaintiff tried to access mentioned herein.

42. The Plaintiff desired and attempted to watch videos by www.columbia.edu and www.gocolumbialions.com, videos entitled “Season Hype Interview: Joe Manchio Post, Binghamton” and “Listen to Prof. Eric Talley discuss the blend of business and law training that sets his classes apart, along with the advantages Columbia students enjoy by virtue of being in the international business capital of the world”. There was no closed captioning on the videos. The Defendant’s access barriers prevented the Plaintiff from enjoying the goods, services and benefits offered by the Websites and as such denied the Plaintiff equal access.

43. This lack of closed captioning by the Defendant on its Websites prevent not only the Plaintiff but also the deaf and hard of hearing located in New York State and nationally from having equal access as non-deaf and hard of hearing individuals preventing them from enjoying the goods, services and benefits offered by the Websites.

44. Defendant has intentionally failed and refused to remove the Websites' barriers of access by failing to use closed captioning thereby denying equal access to the Plaintiff and the Class and discriminates against the Plaintiff and the Class in violation of the ADA and New York laws.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF THE PLAINTIFF, THE CLASS AND THE SUBCLASS

Violation of Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act

45. The Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs "1" to "44" as if set forth fully herein.

46. The Plaintiff is deaf and requires closed captioning to have full and equal access to audio and audiovisual content and has an impairment that substantially limits one or more of his major life activities and is therefore an individual with a disability as defined under the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12102(2).

47. Title III of the ADA provides that "No individual shall be discriminated against on the basis of disability in the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations of any place of public accommodation by any person who owns, leases (or leases to), or operates a place of public accommodation." 42 U.S.C. §

12182(a); 28 C.F.R. §36.201.

48. Title III of the ADA provides that “places of public accommodation” may not discriminate against people with disabilities. Defendant operates a place of public accommodation as defined by Title III of ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12181(7) (“place of exhibition and entertainment,” “place of recreation,” and “service establishments”).

49. Defendant has failed to provide closed captioning on its Websites making videos contained on its Websites non-accessible to deaf and hard of hearing individuals.

50. Discrimination under Title III includes the denial of an opportunity for the person who is deaf or hard of hearing to participate in programs or services or providing a service that is not equal to that afforded to others. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(1)(A)(i-iii).

51. Discrimination specifically includes the failure to provide auxiliary aids and services such as closed captioning to ensure effective communication to deaf and hard-of-hearing individuals. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(1)(A)(III); 28 C.F.R. § 36.303(c); 28 C.F.R. § 36.303 (b)(1).

52. Discrimination also includes the failure to maintain accessible features of facilities and equipment that are required to be readily accessible to and usable by persons with disability. 28 C.F.R. § 36.211.

53. Defendant discriminates against the Plaintiff on the basis of his disability by denying him an equal opportunity to participate in and benefit from Defendant’s goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations in violation of Title III of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. §

12182 (b)(1)(A)(I).

54. It is unlawful to discriminate against individuals with disabilities or a class of individuals having disabilities to participate in or benefit from the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodation offered to others.

55. Failure to make modifications that are reasonable in policies, practices, or procedures, when such modifications are necessary to afford goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations to individuals with disabilities is unlawful, unless implementing these modifications would fundamentally alter the nature of such goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages or accommodations under Title III of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(ii).

56. "A failure to take such steps as may be necessary to ensure that no individual with a disability is excluded, denied services, segregated or otherwise treated differently than other individuals because of the absence of auxiliary aids and services, unless the entity can demonstrate that taking such steps would fundamentally alter the nature of the good, service, facility, privilege, advantage, or accommodation being offered or would result in an undue burden" is a prohibited discriminatory practice under Title III of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iii).

57. The Defendant's actions or lack of actions are discriminatory acts against the Plaintiff, the Class and the Subclass as it has denied deaf and hard of hearing individuals (i) an equal opportunity to participate and benefit from Defendant's goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations, in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1282(b)(1)(A); (ii) a failure to make reasonable modifications in policies, practices and procedures when necessary to afford the Plaintiff, the Class and Subclass such goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages or accommodations in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1282(b)(2)(A)(ii); and failing to take necessary steps to ensure that the Plaintiff and other deaf and hard of hearing individuals are not excluded, denied services, segregated or treated differently than others because of the absence of auxiliary aids and services, including the use of closed captioning on its Websites.

58. The Defendant has denied full and equal access to deaf and hard of hearing individuals to its Websites by having barriers to their services and accommodations while providing access to their services and accommodations to non-deaf and hard of hearing individuals.

59. By making the necessary modification of adding closed captioning to its Websites, the Defendant would not alter the nature of its goods, services, privileges, advantages or accommodations nor would it result in an undue burden to the Defendant.

60. The Defendant must be enjoined from engaging in these unlawful discriminatory practices such that the Plaintiff, the Class and Subclass will no longer be discriminated against.

61. Absent injunctive relief, there is a clear and imminent risk that the Defendant's discriminatory actions will continue against the Plaintiff, the Class and Subclass causing irreparable harm.

62. Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief in addition to attorney fees, costs and disbursements pursuant to the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12188(a)(1).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF
THE PLAINTIFF AND THE SUBCLASS

Violation of New York State Human Rights Law

63. The Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs "1" to "62" as if set forth fully herein.

64. At all times relevant to this action, the New York Human Rights Law ("NYHRL"), Article 15 of the N.Y. Executive Law §§ 290 et. seq. covers the actions of the Defendant.

65. The Plaintiff, at all times relevant to this action, has a substantial impairment to a major life activity of hearing and is an individual with a disability under Article 15 of the N.Y. Executive Law § 292(21).

66. The Defendant, at all relevant times to this action, owns and operates a place of accommodation, the Websites, within the meaning of Article 15 of the N.Y. Executive Law § 292(9). Defendant is a person within the meaning of Article 15 of the N.Y. Executive Law § 292(1).

67. Pursuant to Article 15 N.Y. Executive Law§ 296(2)(a) "it shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for any person, being the owner, lessee, proprietor, manager, superintendent, agent or employee of any place of public accommodation ... because of the ... disability of any person, directly or indirectly, to refuse, withhold from or deny to such person any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges thereof."

68. Discrimination includes the refusal to adopt and implement reasonable modifications in policies, practices or procedures when they are necessary to afford, facilities, privileges, advantages or accommodations to individuals with disabilities. Article 15 of the N.Y. Executive Law§ 296(2)(a), § 296(2)(c)(i).

69. Defendant's actions violate Article 15 of the N.Y. Exec. Law§ 296(2)(a) by discriminating against the Plaintiff and the Class, including the Subclass by (i) owning and operating the Websites that are inaccessible to deaf and hard of hearing persons; and (ii) by not removing access barriers to its Websites in order to make its videos accessible to the deaf and hard of hearing when such modifications are necessary to afford facilities, privileges, advantages or accommodations to individuals with disabilities. This inaccessibility denies the deaf and hard-of-hearing full and equal access to the facilities, goods and services that the Defendant makes available to individuals who are not deaf or hard of hearing. Article 15 of the N.Y. Exec. Law§ 296(2)(c).

70. The Defendant's discriminatory practice also includes, "a refusal to take such steps as may be necessary to ensure that no individual with a disability is excluded or denied services because of the absence of auxiliary aids and services, unless such person can demonstrate that taking such steps would fundamentally alter the nature of the facility, privilege, advantage or accommodation being offered or would result in an undue burden." Article 15 of the N.Y. Exec. Law§ 296(2)(c).

71. Well established guidelines exist for making websites accessible to the deaf and hard of hearing and are easily obtainable. The guidelines have been used and followed by government and businesses in making their websites accessible to the deaf and hard of hearing, including but not limited to the use of closed captioning. Incorporating this component by Defendant in its Websites would not fundamentally alter the Defendant's Websites or business and would not result in an undue burden.

72. Defendant has intentionally and willfully discriminated against the Plaintiff, the Class and Subclass in violation of the New York State Human Rights Law, Article 15 of the N.Y. Exec. Law § 296(2) and this discrimination continues to date.

73. Absent injunctive relief, Defendant's discrimination will continue against the Plaintiff, the Class and Subclass causing irreparable harm.

74. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to compensatory damages, civil penalties and fines for each and every discriminatory act in addition to reasonable attorney fees and the costs and disbursements of this action. Article 15 of the N.Y. Exe. Law §§ 297(9), 297(4)(c) et seq.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF
THE PLAINTIFF AND THE SUBCLASS

Violation of New York State Civil Rights Law

75. The Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs "1" to "74" as if set forth fully herein.

76. Plaintiff served notice thereof upon the attorney general as required by N.Y. Civil Rights Law § 41.

77. Persons within N.Y.S. are entitled to full and equal accommodations, advantages, facilities and privileges of places of public accommodations, resort or amusement, subject only to the conditions and limitations established by law and applicable alike to all persons. No persons, being the owner of a place of public accommodation, shall directly or indirectly refuse, withhold from, or deny to any person any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities and privileges thereof. N.Y. Civ. Rights Law § 40.

78. No person because of disability, as defined in § 292 (21) of the Executive Law, shall be subjected to any discrimination in his or her civil rights by person or by any firm, corporation or institution, or by the state or any agency or subdivision. N.Y. Civ. Rights Law (“CVR”) § 40-c.

79. § 292 of Article 15 of the N.Y. Executive Law deems a disability a physical, mental or medical impairment resulting from anatomical, physiological, genetic or neurological conditions which prevents the exercise of a normal bodily function. As such the Plaintiff is disabled under the N.Y. Civil Rights Law.

80. Defendant discriminates against the Plaintiff and Subclass under CVR § 40 as Defendant’s Websites are a public accommodation that does not provide full and equal accommodations, advantages, facilities and privileges to all persons and discriminates against the deaf and hard of hearing due to its lack of closed captioning for the deaf and hard of hearing.

81. Defendant intentionally and willfully failed to remove the barriers on their Websites discriminating against the Plaintiff and Sub-Class preventing access in violation of CVR §40.

82. Defendant has failed to take any steps to halt and correct its discriminatory conduct and discriminates against and will continue to discriminate against the Plaintiff and the Sub-Class members.

83. Under N.Y. Civil Rights Law § 41 a corporation which violates any of the provisions of §§ 40, 40-a, 40-b or 42 shall be liable for a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered by the person aggrieved thereby... in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the plaintiff or defendant shall reside.

84. Plaintiff hereby demands compensatory damages of five hundred dollars for the Defendant acts of discrimination including civil penalties and fines pursuant to N.Y. Civil Law § 40 et seq..

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF
THE PLAINTIFF AND THE SUBCLASS

Violation of New York City Human Rights Law

85. The Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs “1” to “84” as if set forth fully herein.

86. At all times, the New York City Human Rights Law (“NYCHRL”), New York City Administrative Code §§ 8-101 et. seq. applied to the conduct of the Defendant as the Defendant owns and operates the Websites and are persons under the law.

87. At all times concerning this action the Plaintiff has had a substantial impairment to a major life activity of hearing and is an individual with a disability under N.Y.C. Administrative Code § 8-102(16).

88. At all times concerning this action the Defendant’s Websites are a place of public accommodation as defined in N.Y.C. Administrative Code § 8-102(9).

89. “It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for any person, being the owner, lessee, proprietor, manager, superintendent, agent or employee of any place or provider of public accommodation, because of the actual or perceived disability of any person to withhold from or deny to such person any of the accommodations required to make reasonable accommodations to a disabled individual and may not "refuse, withhold from or deny to such person any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges thereof" N.Y.C. Admin. Code § 8-107(4)(a).

90. The willful and intentional non-removal of the Websites' barriers of access for the Plaintiff, the Class and the Subclass by the Defendant discriminates against the deaf and hard of hearing by denying them full and equal access to the facilities, goods, and services that Defendant makes available to the non-deaf and hard of hearing individuals.

91. It is discriminatory for the Defendant "not to provide a reasonable accommodation to enable a person with a disability to enjoy the right or rights in question provided that the disability is known or should have been known by the covered entity." N.Y.C. Administrative Code§ 8-107(15)(a).

92. Defendant's actions will continue to prevent the Plaintiff, the Class and Subclass from accessing the Websites as the remaining public can and the Plaintiff requests injunctive relief.

93. Plaintiff is also entitled to compensatory damages for the injuries and loss sustained as a result of the Defendant's discriminatory conduct in addition to punitive damages and civil penalties and fines for each offense, attorney fees, costs and disbursements of this action. N.Y.C. Administrative Code § 8-120(8), § 8-126(a) and § 8-502(a).

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF THE PLAINTIFF CLASS AND SUB-CLASS FOR DECLARATORY RELIEF

94. The Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs "1" to "93" as if set forth fully herein.

95. The Plaintiff claims that the Websites contain barriers denying deaf and hard-of-hearing individuals full and equal access to the goods and services of the Websites.

96. Defendant's Websites fail to comply with applicable laws and the Defendant discriminates against the Plaintiff and Sub-Class under Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12182, et seq., N.Y. Exec. Law§ 296, et seq., and N.Y.C. Administrative Code § 8-107, et seq.

97. The Defendant denies these claims.

98. The Plaintiff seeks a declaratory judgment such that the parties understand and know their respective rights and obligations.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests relief as follows:

a. A declaratory judgment pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 57 declaring the Defendant's policies, procedures and practices are discriminatory against the Plaintiff in violation of Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act, The New York Human Rights Law, the New York City Human Rights Law and the laws of New York;

b. Enjoining the Defendant's from actions that deny deaf and hard of hearing individuals access to the full and equal enjoyment of Defendant's Websites and from violating the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12182, et seq., N.Y. Exec. Law § 296, et seq., N.Y.C. Administrative Code § 8-107, et seq., and the laws of New York;

- c. An Order of the Court requiring the Defendant to make the Websites fully compliant with the requirements set forth in the ADA, and its regulations, so that the Websites is readily accessible to and usable by deaf and hard-of-hearing individuals;
- d. An Order of the Court which certifies this case as a class action under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a) & (b)(2) and/or (b)(3); appointing Plaintiff as Class Representative; and his attorney as counsel for the Class;
- e. Compensatory damages, statutory penalties and fines for Plaintiff and the proposed Subclass for violations of their civil rights under New York State Human Rights Law and New York City Human Rights Law;
- f. Punitive damages pursuant to the New York City Human Rights Law;
- g. Reasonable costs, disbursements and Plaintiff's attorney fees pursuant to the ADA, New York Human Rights Law, New York City Human Rights Law and the laws of New York;
- h. For pre-judgment and post-judgment interest to the highest extent permitted by law; and
- i. Such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff, on behalf of himself the Class and Sub-Class demands a trial by jury on all issues and requested relief.
